

THE ONLY SCHOOL
WHERE DRINKING
IS OFFICIALLY ENCOURAGED.

Very few people can honestly say they know a lot about wine. But when you complete a course at the Wine Spectator School, you'll be a certified connoisseur.

For years people have relied on the recommendations of Wine Spectator. Now we're introducing a comprehensive online wine school to help you develop a better understanding and appreciation of wine. You'll learn all the essentials, like how to really taste and evaluate wine, how to buy it, and even how to pair food and wine together like an expert. When you're finished, you'll be able to select a wine with confidence and know how to make the most of every mouthful. For a taste of how you can refine your wine wisdom, visit our campus at WineSpectatorSchool.com.
